HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES

FROM THE COMPROMISE OF 1850 TO THE FINAL RESTORATION OF HOME RULE AT THE SOUTH IN 1877

By JAMES FORD RHODES, LL.D., Litt.D.

Complete in seven octavo volumes, attractively bound in dark blue cloth

---

- I. The first volume tells the history of the country during the four years' futile attempt to avoid conflict by the Compromise of 1850, ending with the repeal in 1854 of the Missouri Compromise.
1850-1854
- II. The second volume deals with the stirring events which followed this repeal, through all the Kansas and Nebraska struggles, to the triumph of the then newly organized Republican party in the election of Lincoln in 1860.
1854-1860
- III. The third volume states the immediate effect upon the country of Lincoln's election; covers the period of actual secession; the dramatic opening of the war, the almost light-hearted acceptance of it as a "three-months picnic"; the sobering defeat of Bull Run; and closes with the military successes of the North in the winter and spring of 1862.
1860-1862
- IV. The fourth volume follows the progress of the war in vivid discussions of campaigns, battles, the patient search for the right commander, and the attitude toward this country of the British government and people.
1862-1864
- V. The fifth volume opens with the account of Sherman's march to the sea. The adoption of the Thirteenth Amendment, Lincoln's assassination in the beginning of Johnson's administration, and the state of society in the north and south at the end of the exhausting war are fully treated. The volume ends with an account of the political campaign of 1866.
1864-1866
- VI. The sixth volume considers the enactment of the Reconstruction Acts and their execution; the impeachment of President Johnson, the rise of the Ku Klux Klan, the operation of the Freedman's Bureau, the adoption of the XIVth and XVth Amendments are among other topics in the volume
1866-1872
- VII. The seventh volume begins with an account of the Credit Mobilier scandal the "Salary Grab" Act, and describes the financial panic of 1873. The account of Reconstruction is continued with a careful summing up, and the work ends with an account of the presidential campaign of 1876 and the disputed Presidency.
1872-1877

The set in cloth, $17.50; half calf or morocco, $32;
three-quarters levant, $40.
